From: Senator Nichi Farnham and Representative Michael Beaulieu, Chairs
Joint Standing Committee on Veterans and Legal Affairs

RE: VLA Report on LD 100 "Supplemental Budget"

The Joint Standing Committee on Veterans and Legal Affairs has voted unanimously in support of the initiatives under the jurisdiction of VLA proposed in Part A of LD 100. VLA held a worksession on Wednesday January 26th. Members present at the worksession were:

Senators Farnham, Plowman and Patrick
Representatives Damon, Chipman, Johnson, Longstaff and Russell

Unfortunately, we were unable to hold a second worksession on the budget on Wednesday February 2nd to consider additional information regarding the reclassification in Part B. At our prior worksession, all members present with the exception of Rep. Damon were prepared to vote in support of that provision. We understand that Part B has already been moved in by your committee, so we have not met to take a vote on this piece. However, we wanted to be sure and note Rep. Damon's objection.

Finally, we have only just received the change package this morning regarding the Gambling Control Board and the fees to cover the costs of considering the application for the casino in Oxford County. The committee has significant concerns with regard to this item and will attend your worksession today to raise them and pose questions of those in attendance.

Attached please find the budget worksheets VLA 1 through VLA 4 with the including which member made the motion and the second for each initiative vote.

Thank you for your time and consideration of our report. Please don't hesitate to contact us or our committee analyst Danielle Fox with comments or questions.
